

FKP Founding Leader Jose Maria Sison Commemorated

A commemoration ceremony was organised for Jose Maria Sison, the founding leader Communist Party of the Philippines (FKP), who was immortalised in Utrecht, the Netherlands.

Organisations from Turkey and Kurdistan also took part in the commemoration for Sison. After watching the cinevision prepared for Ka Joma, the commemoration continued with speeches by various revolutionary organisations and institutions, and a speech was made on behalf of TKP-ML.

In the speech made on behalf of TKP-ML, Sison's legacy of struggle left to the world revolutionary movements and the importance of continuing the common struggle was emphasised.

The commemoration was concluded by singing the International Anthem after the speech made by Sison's wife.
